HERO Program

The Harris Employees Reaching Out (HERO) program strives to meet the needs of both public and private schools in Brevard County by donating Harris surplus furniture, computers and supplies, as well as communicating schools' mentoring and tutoring needs by Harris employees.

Welcome to the Harris Employees Reaching Out (HERO) Website

HERO is a non-profit, volunteer organization comprised of Harris Corporation employees and retirees who coordinate distribution of much-needed supplies and equipment to area schools.

Currently, HERO serves over 100 public and private schools in Brevard County. Please use the links on the left to learn more about the HERO Program.

HERO, or Harris Employees Reaching Out, is a non-profit, volunteer organization comprised of Harris employees and retirees who coordinate distribution of gently used, much needed supplies and equipment to schools in Brevard County. When an inventory of furniture, equipment, and/or PC donations becomes available for distribution, HERO will host a distribution day, to be announced as they occur. Teachers and faculty are welcome to come and take any available items on a first-come, first-served basis.

To be notified of the distribution days and to receive important HERO updates, teachers and faculty at schools in Brevard County are invited to subscribe for our email notifications, using their school email accounts. No personal email addresses please.

To subscribe, enter your school email address in the field below, then click the "Subscribe Me" button.
