- We welcome you to explore our shelves to find exactly what you are looking for! However, please be kind and do not leave our merchandise all over the floor when you are done. Thank you for being considerate to our staff and volunteers in this regard!
- All items are distributed in good faith and are "as is." Please do not return any damaged or defective items to the Supply Zone or donor company – please recycle or discard them.

- The Supply Zone does its best to monitor the type and appropriateness of products placed in the store. However, due to the number of products being distributed, the Supply Zone asks that teachers please monitor all products before distributing them to students or placing them in the classrooms.
